

Brittany T. Brito

bbrito1@uwyo.edu

816 Reynolds Street, Laramie, WY 82072

(307) 421-8532

RESEARCH INTERESTS

Behavioral ecology, conservation biology, management, spatial ecology, and natural history of mammals and birds

EDUCATION

Expected 2019

M.S. in Zoology and Physiology

University of Wyoming, Laramie, WY

2013

B.A. in Zoology with a Concentration in Ecology

University of Wyoming, Laramie, WY

RESEARCH AND PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

2017 to present

Graduate Assistant, University of Wyoming

2016

Biological Technician, Wyoming Game and Fish Department

2012 – 2015

Research Technician, University of Wyoming

PUBLICATIONS

Boulerice, J.T., E. Saldo, B.T. Brito, and P.J. Mahoney. (In Review). Use of an Artificial Predator Increases Count Estimates for Prairie Dogs. The Wildlife Society Bulletin.

AGENCY REPORTING

Brito, B.T., N.L. Bjornlie, M.D. Carling, and J.R. Goheen. Demographic Links Between Energy Development and Population Growth of Wyoming Pocket Gophers. Wyoming Game and Fish Department. 2017 Annual Report.

HONORS AND AWARDS

2018	Reed W. Fautin Memorial Scholarship
2018	Michael and Linda Tiernan Scholarship and Research Fund Award
2013	Provost Honor Roll
2013	President's Honor Roll
2009	National Society of Collegiate Scholars
2009	Freshman Honor Roll

SOFTWARE AND RESEARCH SKILLS

Software:	ArcGis, Program R
Research:	VHF collaring and tracking, mark-recapture, ATVs, GPS, carpentry/tool use, hauling trailers, 4x4 vehicles

VOLUNTEER EXPERIENCE

2014	Volunteer Technician , Wyoming Game and Fish Department
------	--

MEMBERSHIPS IN PROFESSIONAL SOCIETIES

The Wildlife Society

American Society of Mammalogists